

The Edith O'Donnell Institute of Art History presents

MAKING MONEY A QUESTION OF VALUE

Lecture by Monica Steinberg,
Asst. Professor, University of Hong Kong

WEDNESDAY
FEBRUARY 21,
4:00-5:15PM
ATC 2.705

Published in Archives of American Art Journal, American Art Journal, Oxford Art Journal, Art History, Art Journal, and Grey Room, Monica Steinberg's research focuses on the intersections of art, law, crime, fictional attribution, and humor. This talk considers the intertwined histories of art, money, and intellectual property looking especially at the work of J.S.G. Boggs (1955-2017) and reflecting on the systems of faith that both construct and regulate money.

Image: J.S.G. Boggs, 5000 Dollars Green (2001).
Courtesy of the estate of J.S.G. Boggs

THE
EDITH O'DONNELL
INSTITUTE OF
ART HISTORY

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT DALLAS